The application shall give full particulars of the vehicle or vehicles or service of stage carriages for which the motor spirit is required.

(2) An Area Rationing Authority may, before sanctioning the issue of any coupons in connection with any vehicle, require to be satisfied by the applicant that in the case of a motor vehicle it is registered under the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939, or in the case of a motor boat that it has where necessary a certificate of survey under the Inland Steam Vessels Act, 1917, or the corresponding law in force in the Province of Madras, and that all taxes due in respect of the vehicle at the beginning of the period during which the coupons authorise supply, have been paid.

(3) The authority by which any coupons are issued in connection with a vehicle shall cause the fact of such issue and the date thereof to be entered on the certificate of registration of the vehicle when the vehicle is not a stage carriage or on part A of the permit issued under the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939, in connection with the vehicle when the vehicle is a stage carriage.

11. Special provision for Civil and Military officers.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause 10, the Provincial Government may direct an Area Rationing Authority to issue, to any civil or military officer nominated by the Provincial Government supplementary coupons sufficient to ensure a supply to him of motor spirit adequate for the performance of his official duties.

(2) An officer obtaining a supply of motor spirit under this clause shall be responsible for the custody of supplementary coupons issued to him, and shall report at the end of each month to the Area Rationing Authority the number of units for which coupons have been surrendered by him.

12. Power to attach conditions or instructions to coupons.—An Area Rationing Authority may when issuing coupons to any person attach conditions or instructions thereto or may communicate in writing to such person the conditions or instructions governing the use of the coupons.

13. Transfer of ordinary coupons.—A person in whose name a motor vehicle is for the time being registered under the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939, or who is the owner of a motor boat may, if he transfers the vehicle to another person, transfer to that other person ordinary coupons issued to him in connection with the vehicle, and any ordinary coupon so transferred shall be valid in the hands of that other person in respect of the transferred vehicle as it was valid in the hands of the transferor.

14. Coupons which are no longer valid to be delivered up.—A person to whom coupons have been issued, or to whom coupons have been transferred under clause 13, shall, within seven days, deliver up at the office or place from which the coupons were obtained all coupons which have not been surrendered by him to a supplier upon the supply of motor spirit, if—

- (a) the period during which the coupons authorised the supply of motor spirit has expired, or
- (b) the use of the vehicle in respect of which the coupons were issued has, by reason of failure to comply with any conditions imposed by law on its use, become unlawful, or
- (c) the purpose for which the coupons were issued has ceased to apply.

15. Method of obtaining licences.—Any person wishing to obtain a licence shall make an application in Form M as set out in the First Schedule to the Director of Civil Aviation if the motor spirit is required for use in an aircraft and to the Provincial Rationing Authority in all other cases. The application shall give full particulars of the purpose or purposes for which the motor spirit is required.

16. Particulars to be expressed in licence.—(1) Every licence shall state the person to whom and the object for which it authorises the supply of motor spirit, the period for which the licence remains valid, and the amount of motor spirit of which it authorises the supply either—

- (a) during the whole period of the validity of the licence, or
- (b) during stated periods within that period of validity, or both such amounts.

(2) A licence shall ordinarily be expressed as being valid for one year, but the Director of Civil Aviation or the Provincial Rationing Authority, as the case may be, may issue licences having validity for any shorter period.

17. Conditions implicit in or attached to licence.—(1) Every licence shall be granted to be granted subject to the condition that a supplier or dealer furnishing motor spirit on the authority of the licence shall endorse on the licence the quantity furnished on each occasion, and that the holder of the licence shall give the supplier or dealer a receipt for the quantity supplied.

(2) The Director of Civil Aviation or the Provincial Rationing Authority, as the case may be, when granting a licence may attach to it such conditions as he or it thinks fit, and the holder of the licence shall comply with any conditions contained in or attached to the licence.

18. Power to rescind, vary or amend licences.—The Director of Civil Aviation or the Provincial Rationing Authority, as the case may be, may at any time rescind, vary or amend any licence.

19. Licence which is no longer valid, to be delivered up.—When a licence is rescinded, or otherwise ceases to be valid, the holder shall forthwith deliver up the licence to the Director of Civil Aviation or the Provincial Rationing Authority, as the case may be.

Appointment and functions of Rationing Authorities.

20. Provincial Rationing Authority.—(1) The Central Government shall have power to give directions to a Provincial Government as to the extent to which the consumption of motor spirit in the Province shall be reduced and as to the manner in which the provisions of this Order shall be carried out.

(2) The Provincial Government shall appoint a Provincial Rationing Authority having jurisdiction throughout the Province.

(3) The Provincial Rationing Authority shall, subject to the direction and control of the Provincial Government, exercise general control over the working of the system of rationing motor spirit established by this Order.

(4) The Provincial Rationing Authority may issue instructions to all or any Area Rationing Authorities as to the extent to which in issuing coupons for the supply of motor spirit to any person for any purpose the Area Rationing Authority shall aim at effecting a reduction of the amount of motor spirit consumed in normal conditions by that person for that purpose.

(5) The Provincial Rationing Authority shall have power to revise any decision or order made by an Area Rationing Authority.

(6) The Director of Civil Aviation or the Provincial Rationing Authority, as the case may be, shall decide the amount of motor spirit for which, in any case covered by clause 6, a licence may be issued, and shall issue or authorise the issue of all licences.

21. Area Rationing Authorities.—(1) The Provincial Government may appoint such Area Rationing Authorities, as it thinks fit, having jurisdiction in such areas and in respect of such vehicles or such class or classes of vehicles as may be specified in each case by the Provincial Government.

(2) An Area Rationing Authority shall, subject to any instructions issued in this behalf by the Provincial Rationing Authority and to the standards specified in the Second Schedule, decide in respect of any vehicle for the time being within its jurisdictional area the amount of motor spirit for which coupons may be granted and shall authorise the issue of all coupons.

(3) Any person dissatisfied with the decision or order of an Area Rationing Authority may apply to the Provincial Rationing Authority for revision of the decision or order. The Provincial Rationing Authority shall dispose of the application as it thinks fit, and shall not be bound to accord the applicant a hearing.

Restrictions on supply and use of motor spirit, and dealings with receipts and coupons.

22. Motor spirit to be obtained only in accordance with this Order.—No person shall furnish or acquire a supply of motor spirit otherwise than in accordance with the provisions contained in this Order.

23. Motor spirit to be obtained only from supplier.—No person other than a supplier shall furnish, and no person shall acquire otherwise than from a supplier, a supply of motor spirit.

24. Use by producer of motor spirit for private purpose.—Except under the authority of a licence or unless the motor spirit has been obtained upon the surrender of coupons, no producer shall use or permit the use of motor spirit produced by him for the purpose of supplying motive power to a motor vehicle registered in his name under the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939, or to any aircraft or motor boat owned by him.

25. Economy in consumption of motor spirit.—No person shall use or permit the use of motor spirit save in such manner as will effect all reasonable economy in its consumption and will prevent any waste thereof.

26. Use of motor spirit for a purpose other than that authorised.—No person shall use or permit the use of motor spirit acquired by him against the surrender of special receipts or coupons or under the authority of a licence—

- (a) for a purpose other than that to which the special receipts, coupons or licence relates, or for a purpose other than that for which the special receipts were issued to him or than that which was specified in any application in response to which the coupons were issued or the licence was granted, or
- (b) save in accordance with any conditions or instructions appearing on or attached to the coupons or otherwise communicated in writing to the person to whom the coupons were issued, or
- (c) for any particular purpose where a supply has been made for more than one purpose, of a quantity thereof which exceeds the quantity acquired by him for that particular purpose, or
- (d) in a case in which the coupons have been issued in respect of a particular vehicle, in any other vehicle except a vehicle of the same class owned by the person to whom the coupons have been issued, or
- (e) in a case in which the coupons have been issued in respect of a class of vehicle, in any other class of vehicle.

27. Receipts and coupons to be surrendered only at time of supply of motor spirit.—No person shall surrender to a supplier and no supplier shall accept special receipts or coupons or receipts at a time other than the time at which the supply of motor spirit authorised by the special receipts or coupons or acknowledged by the receipts is furnished.

28. Use of coupons for purpose other than that authorised.—No person shall use or permit the use of coupons—

- (a) for a purpose other than that to which the coupons relate or other than that specified in any application in response to which the coupons were issued, or
- (b) save in accordance with any conditions or instructions appearing on or attached to the coupons or otherwise communicated in writing to the person to whom the coupons were issued.

29. Transfer of coupons.—Save as provided in clause 13 no person shall transfer to any other person coupons issued to himself.

30. Obtaining coupons while possessed of coupons.—No person shall, while in possession of coupons obtained from an Area Rationing Authority in respect of a particular vehicle, or vehicles, obtain or attempt to obtain coupons from that or any other Area Rationing Authority in respect of the same vehicle or vehicles without disclosing full particulars of the coupons in his possession.

Supplementary Provisions.

31. Preservation of special receipts, coupons and receipts.—A supplier other than a dealer shall retain all special receipts, coupons and receipts received by him, and a dealer shall retain all special receipts, coupons and receipts received by him, except such as he surrenders to a supplier when himself obtaining a stock of motor spirit until the Provincial Rationing Authority authorises their destruction.

32. Keeping of accounts and records and furnishing returns.—A supplier shall, if so required by a general or special direction issued by the Central Government, keep such books, accounts and records, and furnish such returns at such times and to such authorities as may be specified in the direction.

33. Powers of supervision and inspection.—(1) A supplier, and a person employed in connection with the business of a supplier, shall, if requested so to do by or on behalf of the Provincial Rationing Authority:—

- (a) produce to any person mentioned in the request such books, accounts or other documents relating to the business (including the coupons, special receipts, receipts received by him) as may be mentioned in the request,

(b) furnish to any person mentioned in the request such estimates, returns or information relating to the business as may be mentioned in the request and

(c) permit any person authorised by the Provincial Rationing Authority in that behalf to enter and inspect any premises used for or in connection with the business.

(2) The powers exercisable under this clause shall not be exercised except for the purpose of securing compliance with the provisions of this Order.

34. Exemption.—Nothing in this Order shall apply to:—

(a) the supply of motor spirit to a dealer by a supplier—

(i) on not more than one occasion within one month of the coming into force of this Order, or

(ii) against surrender by the dealer to the supplier of special receipts, coupons or receipts, indicating the previous supply by the dealer of a quantity of motor spirit not less than 98 per cent. of the quantity thereof supplied to him, or

(b) the transfer of motor spirit from one supplier to another; or

(c) the supply of motor spirit by a producer thereof to a supplier; or

(d) the importation of motor spirit; or

(e) the supply from stocks under the direct control of the Government concerned of motor spirit for use in—

(i) vehicles employed by the Central or a Provincial Government for defence or internal security purposes, or

(ii) vehicles, aircraft and machinery employed in or in the maintenance of His Majesty's Forces.

35. Reciprocal arrangements with Indian States.—If the Central Government is satisfied that the Government of an Indian State has made within the State provision for the rationing of motor spirit which is substantially the same as that made in this Order, and that the Government of that Indian State will accept as effective within the State, special receipts, coupons, licences and receipts issued in British India, the Central Government may by notification in the official Gazette, direct that so long as the notification remains in force special receipts, coupons, licences and receipts issued by or under the authority of the Government of that Indian State shall be effective in British India as though they had been issued in British India.

36. Restriction on bringing motor spirit into British India.—No person other than a supplier shall bring into British India motor spirit obtained outside British India, unless,

(i) he has acquired it against the surrender of a special receipt, coupon or receipt accepted as effective within an Indian State in respect of which a notification under clause 35 has been issued and is in force; or

(ii) the motor spirit is in the ordinary fuel tank of a motor vehicle or aircraft travelling into British India.

37. Special provision for persons temporarily visiting British India.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Order when a person temporarily visiting British India applies to an Area Rationing Authority for coupons under clause 10, the Area Rationing Authority may instead of issuing ordinary coupons, issue supplementary coupons for such number of units as it thinks reasonable in all the circumstances of the case. STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Bengal State Aid to Industries Act was enacted in 1931 and brought into actual operation in 1934. The Act was designed primarily for the purpose of affording financial assistance to cottage industries and industries on a small scale in the shape of loans, cash credits, etc. Experience of the working of the Act has, however, shown that it is capable of improvement and the object of the proposed Amending Bill is to modify the existing provisions so as to allow of a wider and more generous application and to remove certain minor defects in the Act.

RESOLUTION—No. 1176M.

Calcutta, the 28th June 1941.

READ—

Reports from the Commissioners of Divisions on the working of the municipalities in Bengal (except Calcutta) during 1939-40.

1. Constitution and Boundaries.—The number of municipalities remained the same (118) as in the preceding year. The only local variations were a few changes made in the boundaries of the Mymensingh, Comilla and Darjeeling municipalities.

2. Elections.—General elections were held only in 3 municipalities during the year under review and aroused keen interest in all of them. In 3 wards of the Debhatta municipality about 90 per cent. of the voters exercised their franchise. The female voters also evinced considerable interest in these elections; in Pirojpur about 70 per cent. of them attended the poll and recorded their votes, the percentage reaching 75·5 in one ward.

3. Meetings.—The total number of meetings held by the municipalities during the year under review was 3,028 of which 71 proved abortive for want of a quorum while 303 were adjourned. The corresponding figures for the preceding year were 3,027, 126 and 273, respectively. The Nabadwip municipality held the largest number of meetings (114) which included 8 abortive and 23 adjourned sittings.

All the municipalities in the Province, except three, held at least one meeting in a month. The South Suburban municipality, however, held only 6 meetings and the municipalities of Baduria and Sherpur (Bogra), held only 9 meetings each, during the year under review. These three municipalities thus failed to attain the statutory minimum of one meeting in every month.

The average percentage of attendance of commissioners at meetings was below 50 in 16 municipalities as compared with 7 municipalities in the preceding year, the lowest percentage (37·8) being recorded in the municipality of Rangpur. The average percentage of attendance of non-official members at meetings was the highest in Kotechandpur (98·5) and lowest in Rangpur (37·2) and that of the official members was highest in Panihati (96·96) and lowest in Tangail (4).

4. Population and Ratepayers.—The total population of the municipal towns (outside Calcutta) most of which include quasi-rural areas, was 2,351,407 or only 4·7 per cent. of the total population of the Presidency, as in the preceding year. And of this small urban population, only 392,705, or about 16·8 per cent., were ratepayers. The rates were paid by less than one-tenth of the urban population in eleven municipalities, including eight industrial towns with a large floating labour population and the two hill municipalities of Darjeeling and Kurseong.

5. Rates and Taxes.—The average incidence of municipal taxation per head of the urban population was Rs. 3-6-½ against Rs. 3-7-11 in the preceding year. This indicates that the burden of municipal taxation was far from excessive and that this was further lightened during the year under review. The incidence of taxation nowhere reached the figure of Rs. 10 per head except in the Darjeeling municipality where it was Rs. 11-8-9 per head; on the other hand in 15 municipalities it was below Re. 1 per head. Four municipalities, viz., Chandrakona, Ramjibanpur and Khirpai in the Midnapur district and Kumarkhali in the Nadia district, continued to levy the tax on persons instead of the rate on the annual value of holdings according to the provisions of the present Municipal Act.

The total receipts from the municipal rates and taxes (Rs. 79·43 lakhs) showed a decrease of about Rs. 2·80 lakhs during the year under review as compared with the receipts in the previous year, in spite of the fact that there was an increase of about Rs. 3·77 lakhs in the municipal demand due to general or partial revision of assessment during the year. There was, however, a heavy fall of receipts in the Howrah municipality amounting to about Rs. 2·72 lakhs due to the orders under section 135(2) of the Indian Railways Act, reducing the municipal rates assessed on the properties of the East Indian Railway and Bengal-Nagpur Railway administrations within the municipality. These orders under section 135(2) of the Indian Railways Act have, however, subsequently been revised.

6. Collection.—The total collection of rates decreased from Rs. 79·66 lakhs in the previous year to Rs. 77·98 lakhs in the year under review with a corresponding fall in the ratio of current collection to current demand from 77·8 to 74·7 per cent. The percentages of the arrear collection on the arrear demand and of the total collection on total demand, however, increased from 37·4 to 44·2 and from 66·4 to 66·6, respectively.

The municipalities of Tamluk, Garulia and Nalchiti had the distinction of collecting nearly the whole of their total demand. The collection of the total demand exceeded 90 per cent. in 14 municipalities, 7 of which (viz., Tamluk, Champdany, Bhatpara, Garulia, Narayanjan, Muktagacha and Nalchiti), collected more than 95 per cent. of the total demand. Thirteen municipalities, on the other hand, failed to collect even half of their arrear and current demand, the worst record being that of the Rajpur municipality with a collection of only 27·27 per cent. of its total demand.

The amount of total remissions increased from Rs. 6·13 lakhs to Rs. 7·05 lakhs representing 5·6 per cent. of the total demand as against 5·1 per cent. in the previous year. The amount of outstanding arrears also increased from Rs. 34·24 lakhs to Rs. 40·87 lakhs and represented 45·2 per cent. of the current and 32·45 per cent. of the total municipal demand.

As in the previous year, the Howrah municipality had again the largest outstanding balance, viz., Rs. 17,18,537 (against Rs. 11,76,455 in the preceding year), even after granting remissions to the extent of Rs. 1,67,060 or 5 per cent. of its total demand. Other municipalities with noticeably large outstanding balances were Hooghly-Chinsura (Rs. 1,18,542), Tollygunge (Rs. 1,20,401), Garden Reach (Rs. 1,16,681), Dacca (Rs. 1,89,363), and Mymensingh (Rs. 1,48,850). In proportion to the current demand, the outstanding balances were the highest in Madaripur (101·2 per cent.) followed by Mymensingh (97·8 per cent.) and Patuakhali (91·4 per cent.).

7. Income and Expenditure.—The total receipts of the municipalities including opening balances, decreased from Rs. 142·8 lakhs in the preceding year to Rs. 138·4 lakhs during the year under review. The total disbursements, however, increased from Rs. 118·2 lakhs to Rs. 120·7 lakhs and the total balances at the end of the year fell by Rs. 7 lakhs to Rs. 17·69 lakhs.

Several municipalities failed to maintain even the prescribed balances and in 32 of them, the balances left were quite insufficient to meet the outstanding liabilities. The Debhata municipality had the worst record with liabilities representing 86·3 per cent. of its current demand. On the other hand 15 municipalities earned the distinction of closing their accounts with practically no liabilities.

8. Education.—The total expenditure on education, including the Government grant of Rs. 1·82 lakhs, increased from Rs. 7·84 lakhs to Rs. 8·02 lakhs. The expenditure on primary education also increased from Rs. 5·84 lakhs in the preceding year to Rs. 6·20 lakhs during the year under review and represented 6·4 per cent. of the total ordinary income as against 5·6 per cent. in the preceding year. The average per capita expenditure on the education of children of primary school-going age also rose from Rs. 2-1-1 in 1938-39 to Rs. 2-7-8 during the year under review.

The Howrah municipality as usual spent the largest amount, viz., Rs. 81,885 under this head, of which Rs. 66,614 came from the municipal fund; but this represented only 4·8 per cent. of its total ordinary income and an average expenditure of Rs. 2-7-6 per child of primary school-going age within the municipality.

The municipalities of Chittagong and Darjeeling maintained their high standard of expenditure on primary education by spending as much as Rs. 8-15-6 and Rs. 8-1-0, respectively, per child of the primary school-going age and they were followed by Chandpur and Kurseong with a per capita expenditure of Rs. 8-0-4 and Rs. 6-7-0, respectively. The highest per capita expenditure (Rs. 14-6-0) was however, incurred by the Taki municipality and the lowest by Moheshpur (Rs. 0-1-2) and Netrakona (Rs. 0-1-4).

The per capita expenditure on primary education was over Rs. 4 in 9 municipalities while it was below Re. 1 in 48 municipalities. Nine municipalities, as compared with ten in the preceding year, failed to spend on primary education even the prescribed proportion of 3·2 per cent. of their ordinary income. The ratio was, however, over ten per cent. in 31 municipalities, the highest ratio being reached at Rangpur (29·5 per cent.) followed by Sherpur (Bogra) with a ratio of 22 per cent.

Government take this opportunity of rectifying a mistake which occurred in the last resolution regarding the percentages of ordinary income spent by the Chittagong and the Chandpur municipalities on primary education during the year 1938-39. These municipalities were reported as having spent as much as 36·7 and 42·9 per cent., respectively, of their ordinary incomes in the cause of primary education; but it was subsequently found that these figures had been calculated by the municipalities on a wrong basis, viz., according to the definition of "ordinary income" as laid down in 1893 and not in accordance with the revised instructions issued by Government in 1939 for the calculation of such income. According to the present method of calculation, the actual percentages of the ordinary income devoted by the Commissioners of the Chittagong and the Chandpur municipalities were only 8·4 and 5·8 respectively, excluding expenditure from the imperial and other grants, and 15·9 and 10·9, respectively, including expenditure from such grants.

9. Water-supply.—The total outlay on urban water-supply was Rs. 12·81 lakhs representing a decrease of nearly a lakh of rupees from the preceding year's figure. The decrease was due entirely to a fall of Rs. 1.61 lakhs under "Capital outlay", there being actually an increase of Rs. 65,275 in the expenditure under the head "Establishment, repairs, etc."

The total amount spent on water-supply by the municipalities in the Burdwan Division was Rs. 4,32,526 against Rs. 4,45,839 in the preceding year. There was a decrease of Rs. 45,158 under the head "Capital outlay" due chiefly to the actual adjustment of a smaller amount by the Hooghly-Chinsura municipality out of the amount advanced to the Chief Engineer, Public Health Department, for the execution of the municipal waterworks extension scheme. There was, however, an increase of Rs. 31,845 under "Establishment, repairs, etc." shared by municipalities in all the districts. The average percentage of total expenditure on water-supply on the total ordinary income was 12.2 against 12.3 in the preceding year and it varied greatly in individual municipalities, ranging from 41.5 per cent. in Hooghly-Chinsura to 1.1 per cent. in Baidyabati.

In the Presidency Division, the total expenditure on "Water-supply" was Rs. 4,49,584 or Rs. 3,003 more than in the preceding year. The municipalities of Garden Reach, Jessore, Baranagar, Tollygunge and Kamarhati increased their expenditure under this head, while those of Khulna, Berhampore, South Dum Dum and Budge Budge spent less than in the preceding year.

The municipalities in the Dacca Division spent an amount of Rs. 2,02,354 against Rs. 2,02,625 in the preceding year. There were a marked fall of expenditure in Narayanganj and Barisal and considerable increases in Faridpur due to the extension of the waterworks and in Patuakhali due to increased expenditure on fees for analysis and electric charges.

The expenditure on water-supply in the Chittagong Division remained practically stationary (Rs. 1,17,508). The Commissioner of the Chittagong Division has observed that the supply of water in the Chittagong municipality was not sufficient to cope with the demand and that those who lived on high lands had long been suffering inconvenience due to low pressure of water.

The total outlay on water-supply in the municipalities of the Rajshahi Division fell from Rs. 1,69,064 to Rs. 78,826 during the year under review, the Darjeeling municipality alone spending Rs. 97,798 less than in the preceding year. But in spite of this decrease in the total expenditure under this head in the division as a whole, the percentage of total expenditure devoted to water-supply increased in all the individual municipalities with the exception of Sirajganj and English Bazar.

10. Conservancy.—The expenditure on conservancy increased from Rs. 24.23 lakhs in the preceding year to Rs. 24.69 lakhs during the year under review and represented 23.98 per cent. of the total ordinary expenditure of the municipalities. The Tollygunge municipality was responsible for an increase of Rs. 14,251 due to the purchase of tractors and trailers and the construction of a municipal pail depôt for the disposal of night soil by modern mechanised system.

The conservancy of the Dacca City continued to be a source of anxiety to the administration which experienced difficulty in properly maintaining the dumping depôts and in disposing of night soil in several depôts due to an inadequate supply of water for flushing purposes—the pressure in the street mains at these points being very low. The problem of disposal of sludge from the septic tank and the detritus tank, was, however, solved by excavating two new sludge digestion tanks. The conservancy system in Chittagong left much room for improvement. The system of removing night-soil in the Comilla municipality was quite unsatisfactory and the question of removal by motor lorry engaged the serious attention of the municipal commissioners.

11. Drainage.—The total amount spent on drainage was Rs. 5.19 lakhs representing an increase of Rs. 70,908 over the expenditure in the year. The expenditure under "Capital outlay" was Rs. 1.66 lakhs while that under the "Establishment, repairs, etc." amounted to Rs. 3.53 lakhs.

The Raniganj municipality constructed a new pipe line up to a length of 1,200 feet from the cooly line of Messrs. Burn and Company, which made a free gift of the pipes to the municipality. The Serampore municipality executed the Chatra outfall which is reported to have made this part of the municipality more healthy and clean. In Dacca, a scheme for surface drainage was prepared at an estimated cost of about

Rs. 15,000 and the major portion of the work was executed during the year under review.* The Darjeeling municipality spent an amount of Rs. 10,200 in laying sewer mains on some important roads and also a sum of Rs. 3,000 in maintaining the surface and Jhora drains.

12. Lighting.—The total outlay on lighting decreased from Rs. 9·12 lakhs in the previous year to Rs. 8·14 lakhs during the year under review due principally to a net decrease in expenditure amounting to Rs. 1·24 lakhs in the Rajshahi Division, the Darjeeling municipality alone being responsible for a decrease of Rs. 1·27 lakhs, for which no explanation has been given.

The Burdwan municipality incurred an additional expenditure of Rs. 6,202 under this head due to the re-installation of electric street lights, which were not in existence during the two preceding years. The expenditure at Dacca decreased by Rs. 4,372 owing to the reduction of the rate for current provided by the Dacca Electric Supply Company. No lighting rate was imposed by the Pabna municipality although its financial condition was not quite satisfactory.

13. Public Health.—The municipal authorities generally showed considerable interest and energy in matters relating to public health and sanitation in their respective areas. There was, however, a slight decrease in the expenditure on account of the municipal health officers and sanitary inspectors which fell from Rs. 2·43 lakhs to Rs. 2·41 lakhs, while the total outlay on hospitals and dispensaries and on other sanitary measures also fell from Rs. 4·76 lakhs to Rs. 4·66 lakhs and from Rs. 1·49 lakhs to Rs. 1·34 lakhs, respectively.

* Cholera and small-pox broke out in an epidemic form in a few municipalities but were mostly brought under control by the timely adoption of preventive measures. The Public Health Department also sent their experts to help in dealing with the situation in Naihati and Bhatpara municipalities arising out of an epidemic of small-pox. Sporadic cases of cholera and small-pox occurred, as usual, in several towns but were generally promptly dealt with by the municipal authorities.

A permanent staff of vaccinators was maintained by most of the municipalities and free vaccination was given, as usual, at fixed stations and, in some municipalities, also at the houses of the ratepayers.

Anti-malarial measures on approved lines were adopted by a number of municipalities. The Bally municipality carried out anti-malarial works in co-operation with the East Indian Railway administration at Lilooah with the result that there was practically no case of malaria during the year and the general public health was good. An experimental five-year anti-malarial scheme financed from grants from Government and the Rockefeller Foundation in equal shares and covering the town of Jessore and its environments, was undertaken by the Public Health Department and a fair progress has been made in checking the disease. Anti-malarial measures were conducted by the staff of the Dacca Anti-malarial Committee, an independent organisation, supported by contributions from Government, the District Board, the University, the Dacca Club and from other sources. The work of the Committee was of great benefit to the Dacca municipality. As in the previous years, most of the municipalities took steps for the improvement of the general sanitation of the towns by cutting down roadside jungles, disinfecting tanks and ditches, and by issuing notices on private persons for clearing their lands of weeds, jungles and other insanitary vegetation.

Anti-rabic treatment was undertaken, as usual, by several municipalities. Special arrangements for the treatment of kala-azar and leprosy were made by the municipalities of Krishnagar and Nawadwip. Krishnagar maintained a tuberculosis clinic and Nawadwip carried on anti-tuberculosis propaganda in every school in order to guard against the disease. The leprosy clinic at Berhampore also worked satisfactorily. At Kurseong, 60 new cases of tuberculosis were detected by the Health Visitor during the year under review and the persons affected were either removed to hospital or given necessary instructions.

Municipal authorities were also not unmindful of their duties in regard to maternity and child welfare. Several municipalities organised dai-training classes—the dais being supplied with necessary equipment after the completion of the usual course of lectures and practical training. A maternity centre was established at Hooghly-Chinsurah and the Narayanganj Mahila Samiti organised an exhibition with the co-operation of the district board.

An X-ray Ward at an estimated cost of over Rs. 15,000, was under construction in the Sadar Hospital at Comilla and for this purpose a donation of Rs. 12,500 was received from Mr. A. C. Sen of Chunta.

The administration of the Food Adulteration Act continued to be uneven and inadequate as in the preceding years in almost all municipalities except a few in which the municipal authorities showed commendable vigilance and energy in detecting and prosecuting the dealers of adulterated food-stuffs.

14. Public Works.—The total outlay on public works decreased slightly from Rs. 16·31 lakhs to Rs. 16·25 lakhs during the year under review. In the Burdwan Division, the expenditure fell from Rs. 5·08 lakhs to Rs. 4·83 lakhs due principally to a fall of Rs. 28,922 in the expenditure on "Roads" and of about Rs. 16,000 in that on "Establishment" in the Howrah municipality for which no explanation has been given.

The expenditure under this head increased from Rs. 4·27 lakhs to Rs. 4·51 lakhs in the Presidency Division. Noticeable increase occurred in Garden Reach (Rs. 40,917), Baranagar (Rs. 25,063) and Tollygunge (Rs. 12,122). The increase in Tollygunge was due to the construction of a better class of roads in all the wards; while that in Baranagar was due to repairs to all the main roads. No explanation has been furnished for the increase in Garden Reach.

In the Dacca Division, the expenditure on public works decreased from Rs. 2·76 lakhs to Rs. 2·57 lakhs and Dacca (Rs. 36,129), Narayanganj (Rs. 3,924) and Barisal (Rs. 1,956) were mainly responsible for this. The decrease in Barisal is reported to have been due to paucity of funds but no explanation has been offered for the decreases in Dacca and Narayanganj.

The expenditure, however, rose from Rs. 0·96 lakhs to Rs. 1·16 lakhs in the Chittagong Division, the increase occurring mainly under the head "Roads".

The commissioners of the Chittagong municipality paid greater attention to the improvement of communications and spent a much larger amount than in the preceding year with the help of the grants from the Motor Vehicle Tax Fund. The road problem of this municipality is reported to be serious owing to neglect in the past and demands the serious consideration of the municipal commissioners.

The expenditure decreased in the Rajshahi Division from Rs. 10·08 lakhs to Rs. 9·44 lakhs and represented 21·6 per cent. of the total expenditure. Though the total expenditure on public works decreased, the expenditure on "Roads" increased from Rs. 1·55 lakhs to Rs. 1·81 lakhs, as many as 9 municipalities sharing in the increase. The Kurseong municipality took up the construction of a park on the Dow Hill Road. The Darjeeling municipality purchased land from the Cooch Behar State for the Brabourne Park and metalled the Lebong Circular Road. In spite of the increased expenditure, the condition of the roads in many municipalities is reported to have been very poor and unfit for modern traffic. This aspect of the problem requires serious attention of the municipal authorities.

15. Audit of Accounts.—The accounts of all the municipalities were audited by the Examiner of Local Accounts, Bengal, and his staff during the year under review and no case of embezzlement or misappropriation was brought to light except a case of fraudulent remission of taxes by a collecting sarkar of the Dinajpur municipality. The municipal commissioners adequately dealt with the matter and dismissed the sarkar from service. The loss of Rs. 282-15-0 was recovered from the security deposit and the provident fund deposit of the collecting sarkar.

The audit notes disclosed various objectionable irregularities in the accounts of the Krishnagar and the Chittagong municipalities, the financial position of which, as well as that of Santipur, showed no satisfactory improvement.

Repetition of irregularities of the same nature and delay in attending to the audit objections still continued in some of the municipalities. Government trust that the municipal authorities will take steps to avoid the recurrence of such irregularities, which are mostly due to either neglect or a lack of proper appreciation of the law and the account rules.

16. General Remarks.—The reports of the Commissioners of Divisions do not reveal an encouraging picture of the municipal administration in the Province.

Finance, as usual, was the weakest point in the municipal administration and was responsible for most of the ills. But much of the financial difficulties of the municipal authorities was of their own creation and was due to laxity in collection which in its turn was due in most cases to the unwillingness of the municipal commissioners to take coercive measures for fear of unpopularity.

This state of things has led one Divisional Commissioner to remark that the time has come for considering seriously whether the Collection Departments of all the municipalities should be superseded and placed under the charge of Special Officers selected for the purpose. He thinks that the expense incurred on account of the Special Officers will be small in comparison with the additional income that will accrue and that the proposal cannot be assailed as derogatory to the status of the municipalities as self-governing institutions as the bulk of the income of the district boards is collected on their behalf by Government.

No administration can claim credit for merely maintaining the status quo and the municipal commissioners should be alive to their duties and responsibilities and also to the importance of initiative and judicious planning on scientific lines for the development of the towns under their care. The municipal authorities generally have failed to take full advantage of the larger powers of taxation conferred by the present Bengal Municipal Act and the incidence of municipal taxation has remained very low as a result of their aversion to resort to increased taxation for fear of unpopularity.

Party-faction was a depressing feature in some municipalities. Government cannot too strongly impress on the commissioners of these municipalities the supreme importance of subordinating their personal or party interests to the greater cause of the welfare and amelioration of the condition of the inhabitants of the towns placed under their care.

Public Health during the year under review was generally good in most of the municipalities. The zeal shown in combating the epidemics reflect credit on the municipal authorities. The administration of the Bengal Food Adulteration Act, however, still calls for more vigorous efforts on the part of the municipal authorities in order that dishonest trading in adulterated food-stuffs may be brought under effective control.

The municipal authorities generally showed keenness in the matter of primary education of children within their respective limits. The commissioners of the Chittagong municipality deserve special credit for having completed their scheme of free primary education after continuous struggle for 15 years.

None of the municipalities in the province with the exception of a few have paid any serious attention to the question of protection against fire. In the opinion of Government, each of the larger municipalities should be equipped with suitable fire-fighting appliances.

Conservancy in many municipalities was inadequate and run on unsound financial lines. The municipal authorities should make a determined effort to improve the service and to make it as nearly self-supporting as possible.

The names of the following gentlemen have been specially brought to the notice of Government on account of their public-spirited work during the year under review :—

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
BENGAL.

Ramna, Dacca, the 29th July 1941.

Forecast of the Summer Til (Sesamum) Crop of Bengal, 1941-42.

(Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1939-40, the area under til in Bengal has represented some 3·7 per cent. of the total area under til in India.)

Character of the season.—Sowing commenced generally in normal time. Prolonged drought from the sowing time onward and heavy and continuous rainfall afterwards, retarded the growth of the crop. Extensive damage was also caused by flood, cyclone and hailstorm at places in Dacca and Chittagong Divisions.

Acreage.—The area sown this year is estimated at 131,200 acres as against 127,100 acres last year.

Outturn.—From the District Officers' estimates, the average outturn of the crop for the province works out at 65 per cent. of the normal this year as against 72 per cent. last year.

Taking the normal yield at $7 \frac{1}{20}$ th maunds per acre, the gross outturn of the crop for the province is estimated at about 22,100 tons this year as against 23,700 tons last year.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 940L. — 6th August, 1941. — The Governor having been pleased to order, under rule 48 of the Bengal Legislative Council Procedure Rules, the publication of the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons which accompanies it, in the Calcutta Gazette, the Bill and the Statement of Objects and Reasons are accordingly hereby published for general information.

THE CALCUTTA AND SUBURBAN POLICE (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1941.

BILL

further to amend the Calcutta Police Act, 1866 and the Calcutta Suburban Police Act, 1866.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Calcutta Police Act, 1866, and the Calcutta Suburban Police Act, 1866, for the purposes and in the manner hereinafter appearing;

Ben. Act
IV of 1866.
Ben. Act
II of 1866.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Calcutta and Suburban Police (Amendment) Act, 1941.

Amendment of section 3 of
Bengal Act
IV of 1866 and section 51 of
of 1866.

2. In section 3 of the Calcutta Police Act, 1866 (hereinafter referred to as the Calcutta Act) and in section 51 of the Calcutta Suburban Police Act, 1866 (hereinafter referred to as the Suburban Act), in the definition of "place of public entertainment" for the words "and shall include a refreshment-room, eating-house, coffee-house, tea-shop, liquor-house, boarding-house, lodging-house" the words "and shall include a lodging-house whether any kind of food, drink or drug is supplied for consumption therein or not, and a refreshment-room, eating-house, coffee-house, tea-shop, liquor-house, boarding-house" shall be substituted.

Amendment of
section 35 of
Bengal Act IV of 1866 and section 18 of Bengal Act II
of 1866.

3. In section 35 of the Calcutta Act and in section 18 of the Suburban Act—

for the words and brackets

"or has or keeps any coffee-house, boarding-house, eating-house, lodging-house or other place of public resort and entertainment, wherein provisions, liquors or refreshments are sold or consumed (whether the same be kept or retained therein or procured elsewhere)"

the words and brackets

"or has or keeps any lodging-house whether provisions, liquors or refreshments are sold or consumed therein or not,

or has or keeps any coffee-house, boarding-house, eating-house or other place of public resort and entertainment, wherein provisions, liquors or refreshments are sold or consumed (whether the same be kept or retained therein or procured elsewhere)" shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

A special enquiry by the Deputy Commissioner, Port Police, revealed that the conditions existing in seamen's lodging houses (known as "lathi houses") in Calcutta are exceedingly bad. Not only are these houses insanitary and overcrowded, but the proprietors take every advantage of the sailors who stay there.

With a view to control these houses, and in pursuance of Government's policy of improving conditions for Indian Seamen the proprietors were required to take out licences under section 39 of the Calcutta Police Act, 1866 and under section 22 of the Calcutta Suburban Police Act, 1866. Recently however a man who was prosecuted for running a lathi house without a licence was acquitted on the ground that as no food was supplied, the sections of the Acts mentioned above did not apply. Government is advised that in the absence of a clear definition of "lodging house" in the Acts referred to, the acquittal was not improper and considers that the Acts should be amended so as to include these houses within their scope. The present Bill is an attempt to ensure proper control of these houses, and thereby, to protect the seamen who take shelter therein.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 1297L.C. — 6th August, 1941. — The following report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Public Demands Recovery (Amendment) Bill, 1940 by Mr. Nur Ahmed, M.L.C., with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by the Committee, is hereby published for general information.

S. K. D. GUPTA,

Secy. to the Bengal Legis. Council.

Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Public Demands Recovery (Amendment) Bill, 1940.

(As introduced in the Council by Mr. Nur Ahmed, M.L.C.)

We, the members of the Select Committee to which the Bengal Public Demands Recovery (Amendment) Bill, 1940, was referred by a motion carried in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 23rd August, 1940, have the honour to submit this our final report with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by us. Matters recommended by us to be omitted have been printed in italics and enclosed in square brackets, and all new matters recommended to be inserted have been underlined.

The Committee met on the 29th March, 1941, and concluded their sitting on the same day.

The Bill has not been altered by our recommendation to an extent requiring republication.

The changes made by us are detailed below.

Short Title.—We have altered the year to 1941.

Preamble.—We have made slight drafting changes in the Preamble.

Clause 1.—We have changed the year in this clause and have made a slight drafting alteration. The words, "It will come into force at once." in this clause, have been omitted by us as being unnecessary. Paragraph (i) of this clause has been renumbered as clause 2 and has been redrafted. For the word "surety" in this paragraph, we have substituted the word "security".

Clause 2.—We have redrafted this clause, to make the meaning more clear and have renumbered it as clause 3.

Clause 3.—We have omitted this clause as this amendment has already been made by Bengal Act III of 1939.

Clause 4.—We have redrafted this clause and renumbered the sub-clauses without making any change in its principle.

Clause 5.—We have omitted this clause as being unnecessary.

Clause 6.—We have renumbered this clause as clause 5 and have redrafted it. We have substituted the words "six and a quarter per centum per annum" for the words "five per centum" in this clause, as we consider it more desirable.

Clause 7.—We have renumbered this clause as clause 6. We do not consider it desirable to repeal section 62 of the Act, whereas in our opinion section 61 of the Act requires to be repealed. We have therefore included section 61 in this clause and omitted section 62 from it.

Clauses 8 and 9.—We have renumbered these clauses as paragraphs (a) and (b) of clause 7 and have redrafted it. We have excluded the Local Boards from the local authorities mentioned in clause 9.

Clause 10.—We have renumbered this clause as clause 8 and have redrafted it without making any change in its principle.

Minute of Dissent by Khan Sahib A. H. Chowdhury, M.L.C.

I sign the report subject to the following note of dissent:—

The Bill seeks to introduce the system of personal service of notice on the proprietors in connection with the Land Revenue Sales. This is certainly very good on principle but the remedy provided in the Bill is not free from practical difficulties. Register D contains the names of the proprietors together with their native villages and thanas but not the post offices. Thus without amending the Land Registration Act or the Forms prescribed thereunder and rewriting the Register D, it will be practically impossible to serve notices on individual proprietors. It is also to be noted that mutation is not usually applied for punctually and even though applied for, it cannot be effected without undergoing a lengthy procedure. So it may not be always possible to ascertain the names of the actual landlords—particularly the actual biggest landlords in which case the Bill if enacted in its present form will make Revenue Sale almost an impossibility or at least a matter of great difficulty and a lengthy procedure which again is bound to have serious repercussion on the collection of the Revenue. I feel constrained also to observe that service of notice on some proprietors only will not improve matter much.

[NOTE.—All matters omitted by the Select Committee have been printed in italics and enclosed in square brackets, and all new matters inserted have been underlined.]

No sale shall take place until the officer conducting the sale has satisfied himself that the notification of sale has been duly published and the notices of sale have been sent to proprietors by registered post.]

Amendment of

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Bengal (Rural) Primary Education Act, 1930, has gradually been brought into effect from the year 1934, and defects have come to light as the result of actual experience. In particular it has been found that there is no provision for the representation of ladies in the Central Primary Education Committee, there is no provision by which representation may be given to special interests in any areas, and the representation of local interests appears likely to suffer when Local Boards come to be abolished. These and other minor defects are intended to be removed by the present Bill.

Return of Taxable Turnover.

17. During the first three years after the commencement of the Act every dealer whose taxable turnover, in the opinion of the Commissioner, is not likely to exceed 10 per cent. of his gross turnover shall furnish a return in Form III annually within sixty days from the expiry of each year.

18. After the expiry of three years from the commencement of the Act every dealer whose taxable turnover does not exceed 10 per cent. of his gross turnover calculated over the latest three years for which figures are available shall furnish returns in Form III annually within sixty days from the expiry of each year.

19. When the taxable turnover of any dealer referred to in rule 18 exceeds in any year 10 per cent. of the average gross turnover calculated in the manner provided in rule 18, the Assistant Commissioner may fix fresh return-periods for such dealer, but ordinarily he shall not reduce the return-period unless he is satisfied that the excess over 10 per cent. is likely to continue.

20. Every dealer other than those for whom annual returns are prescribed in rules 17 and 18 who satisfies the Commissioner that he is not accustomed to make up a statement of accounts of sales more often than half-yearly shall furnish a return in Form III half-yearly within sixty days from the expiry of each half-year.

21. Every dealer, other than those referred to in rules 17, 18 and 20, whose annual gross turnover in the opinion of the Assistant Commissioner is likely to exceed two lakhs of rupees shall furnish a return in Form III quarterly, within thirty days from the expiry of each quarter:

Provided that the Commissioner may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, fix quarterly returns for any other class of dealer also.

22. Subject to the provisions of rule 24 the return-periods fixed for any dealer under rules 20 and 21 shall remain in force for not less than three years and thereafter shall continue to remain in force until the Assistant Commissioner fixes a different return-period in accordance with these rules.

23. The Commissioner or any other officer authorised to take action under rules 17, 19, 21, 30 or 32 shall, in exercising his discretion under those rules, pay due regard to such figures of the dealer's turnover for the three years immediately preceding as may be available to him.

24. If the Assessing-authority finds it impracticable to make a proper check of the returns furnished by any dealer under rule 20 or rule 21 he may for reasons to be recorded in writing direct such dealer to furnish the returns at such lesser intervals as he may consider necessary for the purpose.

25. Every dealer, other than those whose return-periods have been fixed under rules 17, 18, 20 or 21, shall furnish a return in Form III for each month by such date within the following month as may be specified in his Certificate of Registration.

26. Any dealer who elects to pay tax in advance under rule 48 shall furnish returns in Form IIIA instead of in Form III, and in the case of such dealers all references to Form III in these rules shall be deemed to include Form IIIA.

27. (1) All returns in Form III which are required to be furnished under these rules shall be signed by the dealer or by some responsible person on his behalf, and shall be sent to the appropriate Commercial Tax Officer.

(2) Returns furnished by any dealer for whom the Commercial Tax Officer is not the Assessing-authority shall be scrutinized by the Commercial Tax Officer and forwarded to the Assistant Commissioner as soon as possible together with such remarks, if any, as the Commercial Tax Officer may think fit to make.

28. If any registered dealer shows to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that no sales made by him are liable to tax under the Act and makes an application in this behalf, the Commissioner may direct that it shall not be necessary for such dealer to furnish any return in Form III and may grant the dealer a certificate in Form IV.

29. (1) A certificate granted to any dealer under rule 28 shall be valid till the end of the year of issue and thereafter may be renewed annually for one year at a time upon receipt of an application from the dealer accompanied by an affidavit that the business of the dealer continues to be such that no sales effected by him are liable to tax under the Act.

(2) Applications for renewal under sub-rule (1) should be made before the date when the certificate will expire, and applications which are received after such date are liable to be rejected.

(3) Applications for the issue or renewal of certificates in Form IV shall be made to the appropriate Commercial Tax Officer, and particulars of all such applications shall be entered in Register XLX.

Payment of Tax.

30. If in the opinion of the Commissioner the annual tax payable by any dealer for whom annual return-periods have been prescribed is not likely to exceed Rs. 500, such dealer shall pay tax annually before furnishing the return in Form III.

31. Every dealer other than a dealer referred to in rule 30 for whom annual return-periods are prescribed and every dealer for whom half-yearly return-periods are prescribed shall pay tax quarterly in the manner prescribed in sub-rules 32 to 35 (inclusive).

32. The Commercial Tax Officer shall estimate the amount of tax payable by the dealer for the whole year, and shall communicate the same to the dealer.

33. (1) Within ten days from the expiry of any quarter for which no return in Form III is required to be furnished the dealer shall pay one-fourth of the amount estimated under rule 32; and

(2) before furnishing the return in Form III he shall pay such further amount as will make the sum of his tax payments for the whole return-period equal to the amount which is shown in the return to be payable for such period, whether this sum is greater or less than the amount estimated under rule 32.

34. The estimate under rule 32 shall be communicated to the dealer by a notice in Form V not less than fifteen days before the expiry of the first quarter of the year to which it relates.

35. An estimate shall not be changed during a year, and shall remain in force until a fresh estimate is communicated in the manner provided in rule 34.

36. Every dealer for whom quarterly returns have been prescribed shall pay the tax due for any quarter before furnishing the return in Form III for that quarter.

37. Every dealer for whom monthly returns are prescribed will pay tax monthly before furnishing the return in Form III for that month.

38. (1) Every dealer shall pay the tax and any penalty which may have been imposed upon him direct into the appropriate Government Treasury. No payment of any tax or penalty shall be accepted at the office of the Commissioner or of any Assistant Commissioner or any Commercial Tax Officer.

(2) Challans for the purpose of making payment shall be obtainable at any Government Treasury or at the office of any Commercial Tax Officer.

(3) Challans shall be filled up in triplicate. One copy of such challan shall be retained by the Treasury, and the other two copies shall be returned to the dealer, duly signed, as proof of payment.

39. Every Assessing-authority shall maintain Registers XIII, XIV and/or XV, as may be required, in which he shall record the receipt of every challan produced in accordance with rule 43 or rule 44 in proof of payment of tax by any dealer for whom he is the Assessing-authority.

40. Payments by any dealer who is to pay tax annually shall be noted in Register XIII.

41. Payments by any dealer who is to pay tax quarterly shall be noted in Register XIV which shall be kept in three sections:—

XIVA for dealers who furnish annual returns;

XIVB for dealers who furnish half-yearly returns;

XIVC for dealers who furnish quarterly returns.

42. Payments by dealers who are to pay monthly shall be noted in Register XV.

43. Every dealer referred to in rules 30, 36 and 37 shall attach one copy of the receipted challan to the return in Form III when presenting the return to the Commercial Tax Officer.

44. Every dealer referred to in rule 31—

- (a) shall send to the appropriate Commercial Tax Officer the receipted challans relating to payments made in accordance with sub-rule (1) of rule 33 within fifteen days of the expiry of the quarter for which the payment is made; and
- (b) shall attach to the return in Form III the receipted challan in respect of the payment referred to in sub-rule (2) of rule 33.

45. The Commercial Tax Officer shall forward to the Assistant Commissioner all challans which are received from any dealer for whom the Commercial Tax Officer is not the Assessing-authority.

46. Every registered dealer who does not elect to pay his tax in advance under rule 48 may deduct from his gross turnover of the first year during which he is liable to pay tax such sum as is shown to the satisfaction of the Assessing-authority to have been due to the dealer on the date on which he became liable to tax under sub-section (1) or (2) of section 4 or under sub-section (3) of section 8, on account of sales of goods effected on or before such date.

47. (1) Every registered dealer, whether or not paying tax in advance under rule 48, shall report to the appropriate Commercial Tax Officer, within one month from the date on which the dealer becomes liable to tax, the amount which is due to him on such date on account of sales of goods effected or contracts entered into before such date.

(2) The Commercial Tax Officer shall forward to the Assistant Commissioner any claim for deduction which is made under rule 46 by any dealer for whom the Commercial Tax Officer is not the Assessing-authority.

48. (1) If any dealer so prefers he may, with the permission of the Commissioner, pay in advance the tax which shall be leviable upon his taxable turnover.

(2) The amount of tax which may be paid in advance under sub-rule (1) in respect of any given return-period shall be calculated on the basis of the sales effected or contracts entered into during such period.

(3) Any dealer who pays tax in advance under sub-rule (1) may obtain refund of any amount of tax which has already been paid in respect of any sale-price or part of a sale-price which is subsequently certified by a Registered Accountant to have become irrecoverable and to have been written off as a bad debt.

Assessment to tax and/or penalty under section 11.

49. When it appears to an Assessing-authority to be necessary to make an assessment under section 11 in respect of any dealer he shall serve a notice in Form VI upon him setting forth—

- (a) the amount of tax or additional tax, as the case may be, which such dealer is required to pay;
- (b) the return-period or periods in respect of which such tax is payable; and
- (c) the grounds upon which the demand is made;

and he shall fix a date not less than fifteen days after the date of the service of the notice, for considering any objection which the dealer may wish to prefer.

50. If the Assessing-authority is an Assistant Commissioner he may, with the consent of the dealer, depute a Commercial Tax Officer to hear the dealer's objection and to record any evidence brought in support thereof.

51. A Commercial Tax Officer deputed under rule 50 shall send to the Assistant Commissioner by such date as the latter may direct—

- (i) a précis of the points argued in support of the dealer's objection;
- (ii) a record of any evidence taken in this behalf; and
- (iii) if so directed by the Assistant Commissioner, his opinion upon the contention of the dealer and upon the facts of the case.

52. Every Assessing-authority shall maintain a register in Form XVI, in which he shall enter the details of each case instituted under rule 49.

53. A dealer who has been served with a notice under rule 49 may prefer any objection personally, or through an agent, or he may send it in writing.

54. After considering any objection made by the dealer and after considering any evidence produced in support thereof the Assessing-authority shall assess the amount of tax (if any) and penalty (if any) to be paid by the dealer, and shall briefly but clearly record the reasons on which he bases his order.*

55. (1) If any sum is payable by the dealer under rule 54 the Assessing-authority shall serve a notice in Form VII upon him specifying the date, not less than thirty days after the service of the notice on which payment shall be made, and he shall also fix a date on which the dealer shall produce the receipted challan in proof of such payment.

(2) When the challan is produced, the Assessing-authority shall make the necessary entries in the appropriate columns of Register XVII.

56. If on the date fixed under rule 55 the defaulting dealer has not paid the sum assessed or such instalment thereof as may be due, the Assessing-authority shall apply to the Collector of the area in which is located the dealer's office or head office, as the case may be, for recovery of the whole amount of tax and/or penalty remaining unpaid as an arrear of land-revenue.

57. (1) After taking the necessary action the Collector shall report to the Assessing-authority what amount, if any, has been recovered and the date on which recovery has been made.

(2) On receipt of the Collector's report the Assessing-authority shall make the necessary entries in the appropriate columns of Register XVII.

58. (1) All the papers relevant to the making of any assessment in respect of any particular dealer shall be kept together and shall form an assessment case record.

(2) Assessment case records shall be preserved for twelve years.

Refund of excess tax paid.

59. An application from a dealer for a refund of excess tax paid shall be made to the appropriate Commercial Tax Officer and shall clearly but briefly specify the grounds upon which the refund is claimed.

60. When the Commercial Tax Officer is satisfied that a refund is due to any dealer he shall, except as provided in rule 62, submit the application together with his opinion thereon to the Assistant Commissioner for orders.

61. Within thirty days from the date of submission of the application under rule 60 the Assistant Commissioner shall record his order in writing and shall communicate it to the Commercial Tax Officer.

62. Any Commercial Tax Officer stationed in areas outside Calcutta may sanction the refund of any amount of excess tax paid not exceeding fifty rupees without reference to the Assistant Commissioner.

63. When an order for a refund has been passed under rule 61 or rule 62 the Commercial Tax Officer shall, if the dealer desires payment in cash, issue a Refund Payment Order (Cash) and shall make it over to the dealer for encashment at the appropriate Government Treasury.

64. If the dealer desires payment by adjustment against any amount subsequently payable by him the Commercial Tax Officer shall issue a Refund Adjustment Order authorising the dealer to deduct the sum to be refunded from the amount payable in respect of the next return-period following the sanctioning of the refund, or from the next instalment payable under sub-rule (1) of rule 33.

65. In support of any claim for deduction according to rule 64 the dealer shall attach the refund adjustment order to the next return in Form III to be furnished by him or to the next receipted challan furnished under clause (a) of rule 44.

66. After allowing such deduction the Commercial Tax Officer shall cause the Refund Adjustment Order to be cancelled.

67. The Commercial Tax Officer shall enter in Register XVIII particulars of all applications for refund and of the orders passed thereon.

Inspection of accounts, etc.

69. Unless the inspecting-officer in his discretion deems it necessary to make a surprise visit, he shall give reasonable notice in writing to the dealer of his intention to inspect the accounts, registers, documents or stocks of goods of such dealer and in fixing the date, time and place for the purpose, he shall as far as possible have regard to the convenience of the dealer; ordinarily he shall make such inspection at the premises of the dealer and he shall not require the dealer to produce his accounts, registers or documents at his office except for urgent reasons and in the public interest.

70. 4. Such application shall be accompanied by a plan in triplicate drawn to a scale of 8 feet to the inch showing—

In the event of communicating his approval, the District Engineer shall prepare and send to the applicant an estimate of the cost to be incurred for the construction of the approach road or roads and shall require the applicant to deposit the amount mentioned therein in the office of the District Engineer within two weeks from the date of intimation of approval.

6. On the amount of costs being deposited, the District Engineer shall proceed to construct the approach road according to the sanctioned plan. In the event of the owner's failure to deposit the cost or in case he signifies his unwillingness to have the work done, the District Engineer shall have power to demand from him Rs. 2 or any other sum as is, or may be, prescribed by the Corporation for supplying an estimate of the cost to be incurred for the construction of the approach road or roads as mentioned in by-law No. 5 and the owner shall be bound to pay the same.

7. The width of the approach road shall ordinarily be equal to that of the entrance gate or door to which it leads, provided the District Engineer may permit a greater or smaller width according as the nature and condition of the site may require, and provided also that in no case should the width of the approach road exceed 16 feet.

8. The approach road shall have a fall or inclination towards the street depending on the width of the footpath across which it runs, and shall have such gradient as the District Engineer may decide, having regard to the nature and condition of the site.

(b) Any person who is served with a written notice under clause (a) may within seven days of the service of such notice deliver to the District Engineer a written objection setting forth the grounds of objection.

(c) Such objection shall be considered by the District Engineer whose decision shall be final.

12. If such notice be not complied with within a week from the service of such notice or disposal of the objection preferred under clause (b) of by-law No. 11, the District Engineer may cause such approach road to be constructed as may, in his opinion, be necessary and the expenses thereof shall be paid by the person or by any of the persons on whom such notice was served. If the footpath or the kerb and channel stones, as the case may be, are already damaged by such act and no new construction be found necessary, the District Engineer shall have power to demand such compensation as may be payable under the rates in force for restoring the footpath or the kerb and channel stones to its or their original condition.

13. The District Engineer may cause such approach road to be constructed whether or not the person who has failed to comply with the notice is liable to punishment or has been prosecuted or sentenced to any punishment for such failure.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 32591.L.A.—16th August 1941.—The following report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Raw Jute Taxation Bill, 1941, with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by the Committee, is hereby published for general information.

Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Raw Jute Taxation Bill, 1941.

We, the members of the Select Committee, to which the Bengal Raw Jute Taxation Bill, 1941, was referred by a motion carried in the Bengal Legislative Assembly on July 30, 1941, have the honour to submit this our report with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by us annexed. Matter recommended by us to be deleted has been printed in italics and enclosed in square brackets and new matter proposed to be inserted has been underlined.

The Committee met for the first time in Calcutta on August 2, 1941, and from time to time thereafter till August 8, 1941, on which date they concluded their deliberations on the Bill. The Bill was published before introduction in the Calcutta Gazette on July 10, 1941.

The Bill has not, in our opinion, been so altered by our recommendations as to require republication.

The reasons for the changes recommended by us, excepting those purely of a drafting or consequential nature, are briefly as follows :—

Clause 2.

New sub-clause (2a).—Definition of “maund” has been inserted as we are of opinion that the standard of weight as laid down by the Indian Legislature should be insisted upon in all transactions throughout the province so as to ensure uniformity in the rate of taxation under this Bill.

New sub-clause (6a).—“Raw Jute” has been defined in order to clarify the intention.

Sub-clause (7).—The amendment made in this sub-clause is intended to include exports from Bengal to places in India and thereby to prevent evasion of taxation by means of double bills of lading.

Clause 3.

Sub-clause (1).—The amendment here is consequential on the amendment in clause 2(7) and is intended to include taxation of raw jute despatched outside Bengal by any means of transit.

Sub-clause (2).—The insertion here is primarily intended to exclude transactions between jute mills themselves from taxation.

Clauses 4 and 5.

Clauses 4(1) and 5(1).—Payment of fees for registration or renewal of registration of jute mills and shippers of jute was considered unnecessary and the provisions requiring such payment have been deleted accordingly.

In view of the provision for annual renewal of registration, clause 4(2) was considered unnecessary and vexatious and has been deleted.

Cancellation of registration of jute mills might adversely affect the shareholders of the mills and clauses 4(4)(b) and 5(3)(b) have been deleted to give protection to such shareholders who should not, in our opinion, be penalised for the offence of a manager or the managing agent.

Clause 6.

The amendments in this clause have been made as we do not consider it necessary that the books of account should be kept at the mill premises.

Clause 7.

The amendments in this clause besides being consequential, are of a drafting nature calculated to make the intention unambiguous.

Clause 9.

Sub-clause (1).—Provision has been made for a penalty in cases of failure to submit returns with a view to providing an additional inducement for submission of proper returns.

The new proviso has been added as, in our opinion, there should be some provision for extension of time for payment of tax or penalty in exceptional cases to avoid undue hardship.

Sub-clause (1a) providing for a penalty for non-payment has been added as we considered that deliberate negligence in making payment of tax or penalty, as the case may be, should be severely dealt with.

Sub-clause (2).—The amendment in this sub-clause besides being consequential, is intended to be in line with the Bengal Finance (Sales Tax) Act, 1941.

Clause 9A.

This new clause is intended to make the assesses to obtain a refund in cases of payments made in excess of the amounts due. This is in line with the Bengal Finance (Sales Tax) Act, 1941.

Clause 10.

The words "or by night" in sub-clause (2) have been omitted as entry into or search of the premises by night might cause unnecessary hardship and annoyance.

New clause 10A.

The provisions of this new clause are intended for the preservation of business secrets.

Clause 11.

Paragraph (d).—The insertion of the words "without sufficient cause" is intended to exempt hard cases from the mischief of the penal clause.

Paragraph (e).—Failure to make timely payment has already been provided for in clause 9. This paragraph has, therefore, been deleted.

New paragraphs (ff) and (fff).—These new paragraphs have been inserted as it has been considered necessary to provide for a sanction behind the provisions of clauses 10 and 10A so as to ensure better working of the provisions.

Clause 13.

The clause has been considered unnecessary and deleted in order to be in line with the Motor Spirit Sales Taxation Act, 1941.

Clause 15.

The amendment in this clause is to bring it in line with the Bengal Motor Spirit Sales Taxation Act, 1941.

Clause 20.

Sub-clause (1).—The period of limitation for filing an appeal has been extended from “thirty days” to “sixty days” as the original period was, in our opinion, inadequate.

Sub-clause (3).—It was considered more desirable to leave it to the Provincial Government to prescribe the revising authority. We have accordingly amended this clause. Besides specific provision has also been made for a party aggrieved to apply for a revision. This brings the clause into line with the Bengal Motor Spirit Sales Taxation Act, 1941.

Clause 21.

It was considered inexpedient to empower the Provincial Government to allow exemption from taxation which, in our opinion, should be general. This clause has therefore been deleted.

Clause 22.

The amendments in this clause are consequential on those recommended by us in the foregoing provisions of the Bill.

Minute of dissent by Mr. Debi Prosad Khaitan, M.L.A.

I reserve the right to move amendments in the Assembly.

Minute of dissent by Mr. Jagat Chandra Mandal, M.L.A.

I sign the report with this suggestion that Provincial Government while making rules under clause 22(1), would make such provisions that this tax may not ultimately and indirectly fall upon the shoulders of the poor jute growers, and, as stated in the Statement of Objects and Reasons, Government should take immediate steps for the stabilisation of jute prices and for fixing the minimum price of jute.

Minute of dissent by Mr. Mafizuddin Ahmed, M.L.A.

The object of this Bill, viz., financing the carrying out of measures for the stabilisation of jute prices, the improvement of marketing and generally to further the interests of the jute growers of the province and of the industry as a whole—is undoubtedly laudable. Some such measure was long overdue. In order that jute growers may derive the full benefits of jute, warehouses should be provided throughout the province and holding power of the jute growers should be improved by advancing them money against their jute. Funds required for the Jute Regulation Scheme should be found from the general revenues. The proceeds, that can be expected under this Bill, should be entirely spent for the object stated above.

It has been stated that the incident of this tax will not fall on the cultivators but I remain yet to be convinced that the incident will not filter down to the cultivators ultimately. Experience will, however, lead us to truth. With these observations I sign the report of the Select Committee.

Minute of dissent by Mr. Shahedali, M.L.A.

Myself and my party are against the imposition of any tax upon the consumers as we feel this tax will ultimately pass to the jute growers.

However, I may agree to the proposed tax, if its imposition helps to raise the price of raw jute. That is possible only if the minimum price be fixed and the additional revenue which may be derived from the proposed tax is utilized to finance an organization which may increase the holding power of the jute growers. It is common knowledge that the jute growers are disorganized and poor and consequently their holding power is nil with the majority and very poor with the rest. If their holding power is increased they may dictate the price—and not the mills and the exporters who eventually purchase the jute crop—and who at present control the price policy. It was understood that the major portion of the proposed additional revenue, i.e., about 36 lakhs out of 50 lakhs derived from the tax will be spent over the regulation of production and the residue, if any, will be utilized for erecting warehouses, increasing the holding power of the jute growers—and for other objects mentioned in the Bill. But * * * * * without making arrangement to increase the holding power of the jute growers mere regulation of jute production will not increase the price of jute. Solution of question of supply and demand may be a factor towards that direction. So I am of opinion that the proposed tax if imposed must be earmarked for financing an organization to increase the holding power of the jute growers and by no means this amount should be utilized for jute restriction or jute regulation scheme. This expenditure may be met from General Revenue as before. If the majority of the members * * * * * sincerely believe the proposed tax will not pass ultimately to the jute growers, they may increase the tax from two annas per maund to eight annas per maund. This will help the Government to tackle the jute problem to a great extent.

I reserve the right of submitting amendments to the Bill at the time of consideration.

Note.—Matter omitted by the Select Committee has been printed in italics and included in square brackets and new matter inserted has been underlined.

Dacca, the 9th August 1941.

First Forecast of the Sugarcane Crop of Bengal, 1941-42.

(Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1939-40, the area under sugarcane in Bengal has represented some 7.9 per cent. of the total area under sugarcane in India.)

Character of the season.—Drought prevailed at the planting time. Conditions soon changed and the subsequent effects of weather have been helpful to the growth of the crop. The present condition of the crop is reported to be fairly favourable.

Area planted.—The total area planted with sugarcane for the province is estimated at 318,500 acres this year as against 331,100 acres in the final forecast last year. The decrease as compared with the last year is mainly attributed to unfavourable weather conditions at the planting time as also to the low price of gur and cane.

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD,

St. James's Palace, S. W. 1,

22nd April, 1941.

ADDITIONAL STATUTE OF THE MOST EXCELLENT ORDER OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE.

GEORGE R.I.

GEORGE THE SIXTH, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India and Sovereign of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire, to all to whom these Presents shall come.

Greeting!

Whereas by the Fifty-second Clause of the Statutes of the MOST EXCELLENT ORDER OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE bearing date the Thirtieth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven, power was reserved to the Sovereign of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting or dispensing with the same or any part thereof by a notification under the Royal Sign Manual.

And whereas We have ordained in Our Warrant instituting the George Cross that as from the institution of the said Cross the grant of the Medal of the Order of the British Empire, for Gallantry, shall cease, and a recipient of that Medal living on the Twenty-fourth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and forty, shall return it to the Central Chancery of Our Orders of Knighthood and become instead a holder of the George Cross: provided that there shall be a similar change in relation to any posthumous grant of the Medal of the Order of the British Empire, for Gallantry, made since the commencement of the present war.

We now, in pursuance and in exercise of the power thus vested in Us, do annul the Thirty-seventh, Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth of the aforesaid Statutes of this Order and the same are hereby annulled accordingly, and in lieu of the Thirty-seventh, Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth of the said Statutes, We do make, ordain and establish, by these Presents sealed with the Seal of the Order, the following Statutes and Ordinances, namely:—

XXXVII. It is Ordained that a Military and Civil Medal of this Order shall be awarded to persons who render meritorious service warranting such mark of Our Royal appreciation. Such Civil Medal shall not be awarded to Members of any of the five Classes of the Order or to persons eligible for appointment thereto, and such Military Medal shall only be awarded to persons subordinate to those who are eligible for the Military Division of the various Classes of the Order, but a recipient of the Medal, whether Military, or Civil, who may subsequently be appointed a Member of one of the five Classes of the Order, may continue to wear the Medal in addition to the Insignia of the Order. It is further Ordained that the said Medal, including the Medal awarded prior to 29th December, 1922, shall be known as "THE BRITISH EMPIRE MEDAL."

XXXVIII. It is Ordained that the said Medal for men and for women shall consist of a circular medal in silver, having on the obverse a representation of Britannia with the motto of the Order, and, upon the exergue, the words "FOR MERITORIOUS SERVICE," and on the reverse the Royal and Imperial Cypher of the Sovereign, and the words "INSTITUTED BY KING GEORGE V," and shall be worn on the left side, immediately after the Burma Gallantry Medal, suspended from a clasp ornamented with oak leaves, attached to a rose pink riband edged with pearl grey of one inch and one-quarter in width, with the addition, in the case of recipients of the Military Medal of the Order, of a vertical pearl grey stripe in the centre of the riband of about one-sixteenth of an inch: provided that when the Medal is worn by a woman, it may be worn on the left shoulder, suspended from a riband of the same width and colour, fashioned into a bow. It is further Ordained that on occasions when miniature decorations are worn, reproductions of the Medal in miniature may be worn by those to whom the Medal is awarded.

XXXIX. It is Ordained that services or acts deemed worthy of recognition by the award of the Medal, but rendered by a person upon whom the Medal has already been conferred, may be recorded by a Bar or Bars attached, for men, to the riband, and for women, to the centre of the bow, from which the Medal is suspended. It is further Ordained that when the riband is worn alone, the award of a Bar is to be indicated by the placing of a small silver rosette on the riband, a further rosette being added for each Bar.

And it is Our Will and Pleasure that these Statutes, sealed with the Seal of the said Order, shall be taken and received as part and parcel of the Statutes thereof.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's under the Seal of the said Order, this fourteenth day of March, One Thousand Nine hundred and Forty-one, in the Fifth year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command.

Herbert Morrison.

THE BENGAL HINDU WOMEN'S RIGHTS TO AGRICULTURAL LAND BILL, 1941.

to amend the Hindu Law governing Hindu Women's Rights to Agricultural Land.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Hindu Law to give better rights to women in respect of agricultural land in Bengal; it is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title,
extent and effect.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Hindu Women's Rights to Agricultural Land Act, 1941.

(2) It extends to the whole of Bengal.

(3) It shall have retrospective effect as if it had come into force on the 14th day of April, 1937.

Application.

2. Notwithstanding any rule of Hindu Law or custom to the contrary, the provisions of section 3 shall apply where a Hindu dies intestate.

3. (1) When a Hindu governed by the Dayabhag School of Hindu Law dies intestate leaving any agricultural land in Bengal, and when a Hindu governed by any other school of Hindu Law or by customary law dies intestate leaving such land in Bengal, his widow, or if there is more than one widow all his widows together, shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), be entitled in respect of such agricultural land in respect of which he dies intestate to the same share as a son:

Provided the widow of a predeceased son shall inherit in like manner as a son if there is no surviving of such predeceased son and shall inherit in like manner as a son's son if there is surviving a son or son's son of such predeceased son:

Provided further that the same provision shall apply mutatis mutandis to the widow of a predeceased son of a predeceased son.

(2) When a Hindu governed by any school of Hindu Law other than the Dayabhag School or by customary law dies having at the time of his death an interest in a Hindu joint family property consisting of agricultural land in Bengal, his widow shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), have in such property the same interest as he himself had.

(3) Any interest devolving on a Hindu widow under the provisions of this section shall be the limited interest known as a Hindu women's estate, provided however that she shall have the same right of claiming partition as a male owner.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not apply to an estate which by a customary or other rule of succession or by the terms of the grant applicable thereto descends to a single heir to any property to which the Indian Succession Act, 1925, applies.

of 1925.

Savings.

4. Nothing in this Act shall apply to the property of any Hindu dying intestate before the fourteenth day of April, 1937.

Meaning of expression "die intestate."

5. For the purposes of this Act, a person shall be deemed to die intestate in respect of all property of which he has not made a testamentary disposition which is capable of taking effect.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Hindu widows were entitled, in certain contingencies, to get maintenance from the estate of a deceased relation. This was a precarious right and was considered by a large section of advanced Hindus to be incompatible with modern condition.

An agitation was set up for legislation to confer better rights on these widows. The Central Legislature yielded to the pressure and passed the Hindu Women's Rights to Property Act (XVIII of 1937) which was amended by Act XI of 1938.

Broadly speaking, the amended Act purported to give these widows specific shares of the properties in lieu of the right of maintenance out of the same.

But the Act was ultra vires of the Central Legislature in a very material respect. The Bill, which became Act XVIII of 1937, was passed by the Central Assembly on the 4th February, 1937, and by the Council of State on the 6th April, 1937, and it received the Governor-General's assent on the 14th April, 1937.

On April 1, 1937, after the Bill was passed by the Central Assembly but before it was passed by the Council of State, the Government of India Act, 1935, conventionally described as the Constitution Act, came into force. By virtue of this Act, legislation relating to "devolution of agricultural land" became an exclusively provincial subject. See Item No. 21, List II of Schedule VII of the Constitution Act. Under section 100(3) of the Constitution Act the Federal Legislature—which is now represented by the Central Legislature—has no power to make laws with respect to any of the subjects mentioned in List II. On and from April 1, 1937, the Provincial Legislatures alone were competent to make laws relating to devolution of agricultural land in the Governors' Provinces.

It would therefore follow that though the appropriate Bill was legally passed by the Central Assembly, the Council of State had, on 6th April, 1937, the date on which it passed the Bill, no jurisdiction to pass the same so far as it related to agricultural land in the Governors' Provinces. The amending Act of 1938 was passed by the Central Legislature when neither the Central Assembly nor the Council of State had any jurisdiction to pass the same. The amended Act was therefore ultra vires to that extent.

Serious doubts were raised as to the validity of the Act and the Governor-General referred the question, under section 213 of the Constitution Act, to the Federal Court for an authoritative exposition. The Federal Court has held that the impugned Act was ultra vires in so far as it related to agricultural land in the Governors' Provinces. See In Re: Hindu Women's Rights to Property Act, 1941 F.R. (45 C.W.N.) at pages 81 to 89.

In the Governors' Provinces, the Act is valid only in so far as it related to non-agricultural lands. Most of the lands in the villages which are not used for actual cultivation—viz., the homestead lands of agriculturists, outhouses, cowsheds, places for storing agricultural produce, manure pits, irrigation tanks and similar other properties required for the use of the agriculturists as such—will still be agricultural lands. Some properties in towns only will be regarded as non-agricultural lands. Shorn of its jurisdiction over agricultural lands, the Act will operate only on an insignificant fraction of properties in the Governors' Provinces.

This is not all. Serious doubts may be raised as to whether, the Act having failed in a material respect the widows concerned can fall back upon their earlier rights to get maintenance from agricultural lands in the Governors' Provinces and it is not easy to say where they would stand in this respect.

The Federal Court has disclosed a very serious gap in the impugned Act and the same is now practically inoperative or perhaps mischievous in its consequences. This result, however logical and inevitable, has caused considerable disappointment and dissatisfaction and even resentment among numerous influential Hindus. The Standing Committee of the All-India Women's Conference has already moved in the matter.

Numerous transactions, it is feared, have already taken place regarding agricultural land in the Governors' Provinces on the basis of the validity of the impugned Act. And the gap disclosed will cause widespread dislocation in such cases. It is therefore highly expedient, as a matter of public policy, that the gap should be filled up by appropriate legislation in the Provinces.

The present Bill fills up the gap and, if passed into law, will restore the law to its original purpose. This Bill and what remains of the Act in question, after the amputation by the Federal Court, will constitute a complete code on the subject in the Province of Bengal.

The Bill attempts merely to restore the status quo and reproduces the provisions of the Hindu Women's Rights to Property Act, 1937, as amended by the Act of 1938, without any change whatever except that required strictly for the purpose of adaptation to agricultural land in the Province.

The Bill is purely consequential in its purpose and effect and should be passed without any delay. It is hoped that other Provinces will follow suit.

Member-in-charge.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 13991.C.—26th August, 1941.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 51 of the Bengal Legislative Council Procedure Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 22nd August, 1941, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

S. K. D. GUPTA,

Secy. to the Bengal Legis. Council.

THE BENGAL EMERGENCY RENT REMISSION BILL, 1941.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for remission of rent on account of failure of crops and continued low prices of staple food crops for enabling the agriculturists to tide over financial crisis due to such causes, it is enacted as follows :—

1. This Act shall be called the Bengal Emergency Rent Remission Act, 1941.

2. It shall extend to the whole of Bengal and shall apply to only occupancy and non-occupancy raiyats and under-raiyats as defined in the Bengal Tenancy Act of 1885.

3. It shall come into force from the date of assent of His Excellency the Governor of Bengal.

4. Whenever any general failure of principal crops occurs in any village to the extent of not less than 50 per cent. of normal yield, for reasons not within the control of the cultivators, the cultivating raiyats, whether they are occupancy or non-occupancy raiyats or under-raiyats (but not being a mukarari raiyat or under-raiyat) shall be entitled to get remission of rent in proportion to the ratio of failure of yield and the Collector of the district at his own initiative may and on the application of the tenants or their representatives in the legislature shall allow such remission by publishing a notification in the Official Gazette showing the percentage of and the period for which remission is allowed in any specified area :

Provided that no application for such remission shall be entertained unless made within six months of the ordinary time of reaping of the crops which have failed :

Provided further that the remission allowed shall have retrospective effect in respect of tenancies of which rents have already been paid and the landlord shall be bound to effect necessary adjustment when rent is next paid for such tenancies.

5. Whenever any sudden abnormal fall in the prices of staple food crops occurs—the prices falling below the last twelve years average by more than 33 per cent.—and such low prices continue for more than two years, the raiyats and under-raiyats in spite of anything in section 38 of the Bengal Tenancy Act shall be entitled to get remission of rent proportionately to the fall for the period during which such low prices continue and the Collector of the district at his own initiation may and on the application of the raiyats and under-raiyats or their representatives in the legislature shall allow such remission by publishing a notification in the Official Gazette showing the percentage of and the period for which, the remission is allowed in each specific area, provided that ordinarily no application for such remission shall be entertained unless made within two years of the period for which remission is claimed, but this proviso shall not affect the claim to remission for the period 1930 to 1938, which shall be entertained if made within a year of this Act coming into force :

Provided further that the remission allowed shall have retrospective effect in respect of tenancies of which rents have already been paid and the landlord shall be bound to effect necessary adjustment when rent is next paid in respect of such tenancies.

6. Decrees of Civil Courts and awards of Agricultural Debt Settlement Boards for arrears of rent obtained before or after the passing of this Act of which execution proceedings are or are not pending or of which no sale has been made or confirmed shall be executed after deducting the amount to which the judgement-debtor may be entitled, as remission according to the provisions of this Act, from the decretal amount, and no damage shall be allowed under section 68 of the Bengal Tenancy Act in such cases, but only interest at 3 per cent. and all such decrees and awards shall be revised according to the provisions of this section :

The Bengal Emergency Rent Remission Bill, 1941.

(Clause 7.)

Provided that the provision of this Act shall not apply to road cess demand which shall remain unaltered till next revaluation.

7. Sales of immovable properties in execution of any decree (whether Civil Court or Certificate Officer) in which the decree-holder landlord is the sole purchaser and the purchased land has not been already transferred to a third person whether absolutely or partially before August, 1938, shall be set aside if within six months from the passing of this Act the tenant judgement-debtor deposits in Court towards satisfaction of the decree, an amount calculated after deducting from the decretal amount the amount of remission to which the tenant is entitled according to provision of this Act, the amount received from the tenant by the decree-holder in cash and the value of the usufruct enjoyed from the land by the decree-holder.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Unfortunately for the agriculturists of Bengal the Bengal Tenancy Act does not contain any provision for remission of rent for failure of crops, though Tauzi Marhal permits such remission in khas mahal areas. There is no reason why the ordinary occupancy and non-occupancy raiyats and under-raiyats in permanently-settled estate should not get any consideration for failure of crops. If their rents were fixed in perpetuity like that of the proprietors, the latter could reasonably resist any attempt at this ordinary concession to cultivating raiyats of khas mahal areas being extended to permanently settled area. But why should there be any difference between ordinary raiyats in khas mahal and ordinary raiyats in permanently-settled area? Some provision for remission of rent for failure of crops in permanently-settled area is thus overdue and this Act merely tries to remove the defect which has been operating most harshly against the agriculturists of permanently-settled area.

The provision of Bengal Tenancy Act regarding reduction of rent as embodied in section 38 of the Act is not at all satisfactory. It has not made any provision for reducing rent which may be abnormally high as compared with the yield of the land nor has it made any provision for temporary reduction or remission of rent for sudden fall in prices owing to temporary causes. It will be the duty of the Revenue Commission to go into the matters in details, but owing to the abnormal low prices of 1930 to 1936 it has become absolutely necessary to allow the raiyats some relief immediately as also to make some provision in the law for such relief in future on account of sudden abnormal fall in prices owing to temporary causes. Provision has therefore been made in this Bill for proportionate remission of rent if the prices fall more than 33 per cent. and the low prices continue for more than two years. Retrospective effect has been sought to be given by readjustment not only of rent dues but also of decretal amounts in all pending decrees. Provision has also been made for retransfer from auction purchasers to the tenant in cases where such transfer is easily possible.

The Bill, if passed into law, will go to a great extent to relieve the raiyats who have been hard hit by the depression. If the money-lender can be prevailed upon to be content with his dues reduced (even below the principal amount in many cases), why should not the landlords who have increased their income by 4,000 per cent. since the permanent settlement (of which 3,000 per cent. was certainly due to unjust enhancement of rates and rents) should not be satisfied with the rents of ordinary raiyats (not mukarari raiyats) reduced even temporarily for sudden and abnormal fall in prices of which the effect the agriculturists can ill-afford to bear? The Bill rather errs on the side of moderation and it deserves to be passed unopposed.

to amend the Bengal Jute Regulation Act, 1940.

WHEREAS it is necessary to amend the Bengal Jute Regulation Act, 1940, in the manner hereinafter appearing;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Jute Regulation (Amendment) Act, 1941.

(2) It extends to the whole of Bengal and shall come into operation as soon as it receives the Governor's assent.

2. In section 2, sub-section (6) of the Bengal Jute Regulation Act, 1940, the following words, viz., "and also means the plant known botanically as hibiscus cannabinus and commonly as mesta" shall be deleted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Mesta or hibiscus cannabinus is quite distinct from jute and does not have to pay the jute export duty levied by the Government of India. Besides, its cultivation is restricted almost entirely to one district, viz., Faridpur and hence its exemption from restriction will not materially affect the Government scheme for regulation of jute cultivation. The application of the regulation scheme to mesta will have the effect of discriminatory legislation against one particular district, and can therefore be justified neither on grounds of expediency nor of principle.

THE BENGAL SMOKE NUISANCE (AMENDMENT)
BILL, 1941.

A BILL

further to amend the Bengal Smoke Nuisance Act, 1905.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Smoke Nuisance Act, 1905, in the manner appearing hereinafter ;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. This Act may be called the Bengal Smoke Nuisance (Amendment) Act, 1941.

2. For the words "from the smoke of furnaces or fire places" up to "other areas in Bengal" occurring in the Title and Preamble of the Bengal Smoke Nuisance Act, 1905, hereafter to be called the said Act, the words "from the smoke of furnaces, flues, chimneys or fire places in the city of Calcutta, and all municipal areas in Bengal and to provide for the extension thereof to other specified areas in Bengal" shall be substituted.

3. For sub-section (2) of section 1 of the said Act, the following shall be substituted as sub-section (2) :—

"(2) It extends in the first instance to the city of Calcutta as defined in the Calcutta Municipal Act of 1923 and to all Municipalities as constituted under the Bengal Municipal Act of 1932."

4. (1) In section 3 of the said Act, after sub-section (1), the following shall be inserted :—

"(1A) 'Flue or chimney' means any flue or chimney joined to or connected with or forming part of a furnace."

(2) In sub-section (4) of section 3 of the said Act, in sections 6, 7, 8, 8A, 9 and in all other sections of the said Act, the words "flue or chimney" shall be inserted after the word "furnace" wherever it occurs.

5. After sub-section (2) of section 8A of the said Act, the following shall be added :—

"(3) A Magistrate imposing a fine under sub-section (2) of section 8A may, by order, direct such person to demolish the furnace, flue or chimney within a period to be specified in the order.

(4) Any such person failing to demolish within the period specified in the order or within such longer period, as the Magistrate may, for reasons to be stated allow, shall be liable to fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day thereafter during which such failure continues."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Though the Bengal Nuisance Act was passed in 1905, its scope has only been extended to Calcutta, Howrah and some three Municipalities of Bengal. Its jurisdiction and area of operation is hopelessly limited, especially at a time when places which were once obscure and unimportant have developed into important industrial towns. It is desirable that the scope of the Smoke Nuisance Commission should be extended by the amendment of the Act. It appears from the latest report of the Smoke Nuisance Commission published in 1940 that in 1940 it had to deal with 3,372 cases of smoke nuisance. The main purpose of this amending Bill is to extend the Act to all municipal areas for the good of public health and sanitation.

further to amend the Bengal Jute Regulation Act, 1940.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Jute Regulation Act, 1940, in the manner appearing herein after ;

It is enacted as follows :—

1. It may be called the Bengal Jute Regulation (Amendment) Act, 1941.

2. The words "either for his own consumption or" occurring in the first and second lines of sub-section (5) of section 2 of the Bengal Jute Regulation Act, 1940, shall be omitted and at the end of the said sub-section (5) the words "but it shall not include any person who grows jute exclusively for his own domestic use or consumption on any land in his possession" shall be added.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The apparent purpose of the Bengal Jute Regulation Act, 1940, was to secure reasonable and profitable price of jute to the growers of jute by regulating the cultivation thereof. It was not the intention of the legislation to control the cultivation of jute crop produced solely for domestic use and consumption on the part of the grower. In some district such as in Chittagong, jute is grown on small tract of land for domestic use and consumption as vegetables. As the production of jute especially for domestic use and consumption has been included within the purview of the Act, it has been causing great hardships to poor cultivators who grow jute for domestic use only. It is desirable that cultivation of jute for domestic use and consumption should be excluded from the scope of the Act. Hence this amending Bill is necessary.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The sole and main aim of this amending piece of legislation is to make some necessary provisions in the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932. These proposed provisions fall under two heads, viz., (1) provision for election of more than one Vice-Chairman. With the growth of multifarious municipal duties and activities this would be necessary in case of big municipal bodies; and secondly, the powers are proposed to be given to regulate importunate begging in public streets and public places by showing infirmity, dangerous disease or sore or wound to excite the feeling of charity, and to regulate brothel and prostitution within their municipal areas. These powers have already been given to the Municipalities of the Punjab, Bombay and of other provinces. These are very necessary provisions which ought to be added to the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932, for the purpose of conferment of greater good and comforts to the rate-payers of every Municipality in Bengal.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 14041.L.C.—26th August, 1941.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 51 of the Bengal Legislative Council Procedure Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 22nd August, 1941, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

S. K. D. GUPTA,

Secy. to the Bengal Legis. Council.

THE BENGAL FISHERIES BILL, 1941.

WHEREAS it is expedient to extend the law relating to Fisheries in Bengal, it is enacted as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Fisheries Act, 1941.

(2) It will extend to the whole of the Bengal Presidency.

2. In this Act and the rules made thereunder unless there is something repugnant in the subject or content, the words "fish" and "private water" shall bear the same meanings as assigned to them in section 3 of the Indian Fisheries Act, 1897.

3. In this Act unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or content—

(1) "Fishery officer" includes any person whom the Provincial Government or any officer empowered by the Provincial Government in this behalf may from time to time appoint by name or as holding office to carry out the purposes of this Act and the rules made thereunder.

(2) "Fishing offence" means any offence punishable under this Act and the rules made thereunder.

4. (1) The Provincial Government may make rules for the purposes mentioned in this section and may by such rules declare the water (not being private water) to which any of such rules shall apply.

(2) The Provincial Government may by a notification published in the Official Gazette apply such rules to any private water with the consent in writing of the owner thereof and of all persons having exclusive right of fishery therein.

(3) Such rules—

(a) may prohibit fishing without licence and prescribe conditions for such licence ;

(b) may prohibit killing any fish of any prescribed species or of any prescribed size or weight ;

(c) may provide for—

(i) the seizure, forfeiture and removal of any apparatus erected, used or employed for fishing in contravention of the rules ; and

(ii) the confiscation of any fish caught by means of such apparatus or appliances.

5. The Provincial Government may prohibit by a notification the selling or barter of any fish killed in contravention of any provision of this Act and of any rules made thereunder.

6. Whoever shall break any rules made under section 4 or any prohibition notified under section 5 shall be punished on conviction to fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, and when the breach is a continuing breach, with a fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day after the date of the first conviction during which the breach is proved to have been continued.

7. All offences punishable under this Act and the rules made thereunder shall be cognisable, bailable and compoundable.

8. The procedure provided in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall be applicable to the trials of offences punishable under this Act.

The Bengal Fisheries Bill, 1941.(Sections 9, 10.)

9. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to limit the power of the Provincial Government to make rules under section 6 of the Indian Fisheries Act, 1897.

10. The Provincial Government may by a notification empower any fishery officer to compound any offence punishable under this Act and the rule made thereunder on such terms and conditions and on payment of such compensation as prescribed by the rules by the Provincial Government for these purposes.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Government of Bengal has already decided to restart the Fishery Department in Bengal with a view to bring about a healthy development in the fishing industry of the province and a sum of Rs. 82 thousand has been provided in the current year's budget estimates. It is desirable that necessary powers should be given to the Provincial Government to improve the industries in all possible ways. Hence there is a necessity of a legislation as suggested in this Bill.

Member-in-charge.

No. 14051.L.C.—26th August, 1941.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 51 of the Bengal Legislative Council Procedure Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 22nd August, 1941, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

S. K. D. GUPTA,

Secy. to the Bengal Legis. Council,

THE BENGAL HINDU WOMEN'S RIGHT TO PROPERTY
BILL, 1941.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the Hindu women's right to property in respect of the devolution of agricultural land ; it is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. (i) This Act may be called the Bengal Hindu Women's Right to Property Act, 1941.

(ii) It extends to the Province of Bengal only.

2. "Dies intestate" in this Act means "dies without making any testamentary disposition which is capable of taking effect".

3. (i) Where a Hindu governed by the Daybhag School of Hindu Law dies intestate his agricultural lands and when a Hindu governed by any other school of Hindu Law or by customary law dies intestate leaving agricultural lands which are his separate property, his widow or if there is more than one widow all his widows together, shall subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), be entitled in respect of property regarding which he dies intestate to the same share, as a son :

Provided that the widow of a predeceased son shall inherit in like manner as a son if there is no son surviving of such predeceased son and shall inherit in like manner as a son's son if there is surviving a son or son's son of such predeceased son :

Provided further that the same provisions shall apply mutatis mutandis to the widow of a predeceased son of a predeceased son.

(ii) When a Hindu governed by any school of Hindu Law other than the Daybhag School or by customary law dies, having at the time of his death, an interest in Hindu joint family property, his widow shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) have in the property the same interest as he himself had.

(iii) Any interest devolving on a Hindu widow under the provisions of this section shall be the limited interest known as a Hindu women's estate, provided however that she shall have the same right of claiming partition as a male owner.

(iv) The provisions of this section shall not apply to an estate which by a customary or other rule of succession or by the terms of the grant applicable thereto descends to a single heir or to any property to which the Indian Succession Act, 1925, applies.

4. Nothing in this Act shall apply to the property of any Hindu dying before the 14th April, 1937.

5. The Act shall have retrospective effect as if it had come into force on the 14th day of April, 1937.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Federal Court is of opinion (1941 C. W. N. 81 F. R.) that the Hindu Women's Rights to Property Act, 1937, and the Hindu Women's Rights to Property (Amendment) Act, 1938—

(a) do not operate to regulate succession to agricultural land in the Governor's Provinces, and

(b) do operate to regulate devolution by survivorship of property other than agricultural land. This opinion has created considerable difficulties. There were devolutions after April, 1937, and transfers have been made thereafter creating interest in third parties. To meet the situation it is desirable that there should be legislation in Bengal to provide for the Hindu women's right to property in respect of the devolution of agricultural land. The Bill has been drafted on the lines of the Hindu Women's Rights to Property Act and is intended to remove the difficulties pointed out by the Federal Court.

ORDINANCE No. VII of 1941.

AN

to make provision for the grant of relief in respect of certain personal injuries sustained during the continuance of the present hostilities.

WHEREAS an emergency has arisen which renders it necessary to make provision for the grant of relief in respect of certain personal injuries sustained during the continuance of the present hostilities;

Now, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 72 of the Government of India Act, as set out in the Ninth Schedule to the Government of India Act, 1935, the Governor-General is pleased to make and promulgate the following Ordinance:—

26 Geo. 5.
C. 2.

Short title, extent and commence-

1. (1) This Ordinance may be called the War Injuries Ordinance, 1941.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

Interpreta-

(1) "civil defence organisation" means any organisation established for civil defence purposes which is declared by a scheme to be a civil defence organisation for the purposes of this Ordinance and the scheme;

(2) "civil defence volunteer", in relation to an injury, means a person certified, by an officer of a civil defence organisation authorised by the Central Government to grant such certificates, to have been a member of that organisation at the time the injury was sustained;

(3) "continuance of the present hostilities" means the period beginning with the commencement of this Ordinance and ending with such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, declare to be the date on which the present hostilities terminated;

(4) "gainfully occupied person" means a person who is engaged in any trade, business, profession, office, employment or vocation and is wholly or substantially dependent thereon for a livelihood, or a person who, though temporarily unemployed, is normally so engaged and dependent;

(5) "scheme" means a scheme made under this Ordinance;

- (6) "war injury" means a physical injury—
- (a) caused by—
 - (i) the discharge of any missile (including liquids and gas), or
 - (ii) the use of any weapon, explosive or other noxious thing, or
 - (iii) the doing of any other injurious act, either by the enemy or in combating the enemy or in repelling an imagined attack by the enemy; or
 - (b) caused by the impact on any person or property of any enemy aircraft, or any aircraft belonging to or held by any person on behalf of or for the benefit of His Majesty or any allied power, or any part of, or anything dropped from, any such aircraft;
- (7) "war service injury", in relation to a civil defence volunteer, means any physical injury shown to the satisfaction of the Central Government or other authority authorised to make payments under a scheme to have arisen out of and in the course of the performance by the volunteer of his duties as a member of the civil defence organisation to which he belonged at the time the injury was sustained, and (except in the case of a war injury) not to have arisen out of and in the course of his employment in any other capacity:

Provided that before being so satisfied the Central Government or other authority authorised to make payments under a scheme shall have received from the civil defence organisation of which the volunteer concerned was a member at the time the injury was sustained, a report, by an officer of the organisation authorised by the Central Government to make such reports, about the injury in question.

Power to make schemes for relief in respect of war injuries and war service injuries.

3. (1) The Central Government may make a scheme or schemes in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance providing for the grant of relief in respect of the following injuries sustained during the continuance of the present hostilities, namely:—

- (a) war injuries sustained by gainfully occupied persons (with such exceptions, if any, as may be specified in the scheme) and by persons of such other classes as may be so specified; and
- (b) war service injuries sustained by civil defence volunteers.

(2) A scheme may authorise the Central Government or any authority authorised by the Central Government to make payments under the scheme, in such circumstances and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the scheme, to make to or in respect of persons injured—

- (a) payments by way of temporary allowance, which shall be payable only so long as the person injured is incapacitated for work by the injury and has not received any such payment as is mentioned in clause (b);
- (b) payments otherwise than by way of temporary allowance, which shall be payable only where the injury causes serious and prolonged disablement or death; and
- (c) payments for the purchase of or the grant at the cost of Government of artificial limbs or surgical or other appliances.

(3) A scheme may empower the Central Government to make regulations for giving effect to the purposes of the scheme.

(4) A scheme may provide that it shall come into operation or shall be deemed to have come into operation on such date as may be specified therein.

(5) A scheme may be amended or rescinded at any time by the Central Government.

(6) Any decision of the Central Government or other authority empowered to make payments under a scheme as to the making, refusal or amount, or as to the continuance or discontinuance, of a payment under a scheme may be varied from time to time by a subsequent decision of the Central Government or such authority as the case may be, but save in so far as it is so varied shall be final and conclusive.

Relief from liability to pay compensation or damages.

4. (1) In respect of a war injury sustained during the continuance of the present hostilities by any person, and in respect of a war service injury sustained during that period by a civil defence volunteer, no such compensation or damages shall be payable, whether to the person injured or to any other person, as apart from the provisions of this sub-section—

(ii) in the case of a war service injury sustained by a civil defence volunteer, by the employer of the volunteer, or by any person who has responsibility in connection with the volunteer's duties as such or by any other civil defence volunteer, on the ground that the injury in question was attributable to some negligence, nuisance or breach of duty for which the person by whom the compensation or damages would be payable is responsible.

(2) The failure to give a notice or make a claim or commence proceedings within the time required by any enactment shall not be a bar to the maintenance of proceedings in respect of any personal injury, if—

(a) an application for a payment under a scheme has been duly made to the Central Government or other authority empowered to make payments under the scheme in respect of the injury; and

(b) the Court or other authority before which the proceedings are brought is satisfied that the said application was made in the reasonable belief that the injury was such that a payment could be made under the scheme; and

(c) the Central Government or other authority empowered to make payments under the scheme certifies that the application was rejected, or that payments made in pursuance of the application were discontinued, on the ground that the injury was not such an injury; and

(d) the proceedings are commenced within one month from the date of the said certificate.

Information as to earnings.

5. (1) Where it is necessary in order to determine the amount of any payment to be awarded under a scheme in respect of any injury, to ascertain the earnings of the person injured in respect of any period before he sustained the injury, the Central Government or other authority authorised to make payments under the scheme may by notice in writing require—

- (a) any person who was an employer of the injured person during that period, or
- (b) any other person having any knowledge with respect to the financial circumstances of the injured person during that period, to furnish in accordance with the notice any information in his possession relating to those earnings or circumstances, and to produce to any person specified in the notice any wage books, records or other documents in his possession containing entries with respect to those earnings.

(2) If any person—

- (a) fails to comply with the requirements of any such notice, or
- (b) in purported compliance with any such notice, knowingly or recklessly makes any untrue statement or untrue representation, or produces any document which is false in a material particular or calculated to deceive, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to three hundred rupees.

Penalty for false statement.

6. Any person who for the purpose of obtaining a payment or grant under a scheme either for himself or for any other person, knowingly makes any untrue statement or untrue representation, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months.

Assignments or charges
to be void.

7. Any assignment of, or charge on, and any agreement to assign or charge any payment awarded or to be awarded under a scheme shall be void, and, on the insolvency of any person to whom such a payment has been awarded, the payment shall not pass to any trustee or other person acting on behalf of the creditors.

J. K. SARKAR, Executive Engineer,
Mymensingh Division.

Mymensingh, the 19th August 1941.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
BENGAL.

Dacca, the 2nd August 1941.

First Forecast of the Cotton Crops of Bengal, 1941-42.

(Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1939-40, the area under cotton in the territories in Bengal to which this forecast relates has represented some 0·2 per cent. and that in the Bengal states some 0·1 per cent. of the total area under cotton in India.)

There are two crops—early and late. The early crop is chiefly grown in the Chittagong Hill Tracts and in the Tripura State and to a small extent in other districts. The late crop is grown in Bankura and Midnapore.

Character of the season.—The weather was generally favourable for the crop except in Mymensingh where excessive rain in the first fortnight of May somewhat affected the growth of the crop.

Area sown.—The area sown is reported to be 106,188 acres this year as against 107,078 acres in the corresponding forecast of last year. The decrease in area is due to reservation of some forest area in the interior of the Tripura State.

M. CARBERRY,

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.
